

The University of Arizona
Arizona Band Boosters Scholarship

- Source: Arizona Band Boosters Association (ABBA) was formed in 1973 to develop and build within the University of Arizona a permanent, continuing band fund, or an Endowment. Part of the annual interest generated by this fund is to be used for scholarships as set by the ABBA Board of Directors.
- Award: $ 500.00.
- Eligibility: The Arizona Band Boosters Scholarship was established to aid and encourage University of Arizona students to partake in the adventure of being part of the University of Arizona Marching Band. This requires currently being enrolled in the Marching Band for the fall, which includes the auxiliary group members (i.e., Twirler, Pom, Flag), or an incoming freshmen.
- Selection: Application for this scholarship will be made to the University of Arizona Office of Student Financial Aid where candidates will be reviewed. Those meeting requirements of the University for a scholarship will be forward to the Arizona Band Boosters for review and selection.
- Application  Applications should be received if possible prior to the First Semester of the Academic year or no later than November of that Semester. The completed scholarship application form, a personal letter of need and qualifications, and a letter of recommendation from your current Band Director, or in the case of auxiliaries currently enrolled at the University, your coach. Application will not be considered without all 3 items.
- Return To: UA Office of Student Financial Aid
Administration Building Room 208
C/O Arizona Band Boosters Scholarship
P.O. Box 210066
Tucson, AZ 85721-0066